Corrigenda

I am grateful to Jim Funderburk, Stephen Rhodes, and Herman Tull for bringing errors to my attention. If you notice errors not in this list, please email me with "Ramopakhyana" in the subject line. Corrections here include all corrections to the text received in Eudora 16 Jan 2004 to 3 Nov. 2006 and in MacMail 30 Oct 2006 - 30 Mar 2009.

Introduction

1. p. 3, change "cluminating" to "culminating".
2. In Intro sec. IIA (p. 29), Change "chapters 267-276" to "chapters 257-276."
3. In Preface, Development, paragraph 2 change 'I' to 'me' in "compiled by George Cardona, Elliot Stern, and I".
4. Note for me: Add mention of the fact that I list the adjectival stem in the glossary and provide no indication of the feminine suffix to be added to derive the inflectional stem. Or add such an indication for each.

Where adjectives have a feminine affix, list: dīptākṣa, -ī, with explanation in the grammatical introduction that the feminine suffix occurs after the comma?

Text

1. p. 78, 3.257.5, prose: Add sentence 6 (and renumber sentence 6 to 7): anṛtam stānyam śuciṃ puruṣam na saṃspr̥śet .6.

formatting error. Vocabulary for the third line appears in both columns below a horizontal line to be drawn at pūjā across both columns. The top of column two continues vinītātman in the first column. Second column prī continues first column prīyamāna.
72. p. 462, 3.266.15, grammar notes: Add note "Aha:
According to Pā. 3.4.84 bruvaḥ pañcānāmādita āho
bruvaḥ, 3rd person and second person sg. and du. active perfect verbal terminations occur in present time for this verb, and the root brū is replaced by āh; contemporary grammars account for the facts by explaining that there is a defective verb ah used in the perfect with present sense.

73. p. 468, 3.266.21, glossary, column 2, udaya: the
lexid should be 'noun' rather than 'm'.
74. p. 470, 3.266.23, inflection, line 1: change the first
